Making Songs an Integral Part of Learning in a Second Language Classroom

with Emese Gyarmathy & Marie-France Léger

March 11, 2010 from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: For ALL FSL Teachers Grade 4 - 12

ABOUT THIS LEARNING OPPORTUNITY:

Our workshop deals with how a teacher can use music in an inspirational/educational way in the classroom. Music and listening to songs is something that the vast majority of teenagers do. By using the music that they enjoy and relate to on a day-to-day basis, we can make them realize a number of tasks using authentic material.

This workshop will show you how using popular songs, students can do everything from learn grammar, do creative writing tasks, to even perform acts to make the world a better place. We look forward to showing you how popular music can be an integral part of a language classroom.

At the end of the workshop, you will leave with tons of examples, tools and ready-to-use projects and activities.

ABOUT THE FACILITATORS:

Emese Gyarmathy has been teaching at Collège Bourget for the past 8 years. She started off teaching English (ESL & EESL) in both the primary and secondary sectors of the school. Now she teaches EESL exclusively in cycle 1. She adores finding ways to motivate/inspire her students to love the English language as well as become model citizens.

Marie-France Léger is 33 a teacher of 220 students! She has been teaching at Collège Bourget for the past ten years. She started off teaching English (ESL) in both the primary and secondary sectors of the school. Now she teaches ESL exclusively at the elementary levels (kindergarten up to grade 6). She is always looking for different ways to grab and maintain her students' interest and willingness to learn and discover the English language and culture.
