

This learning opportunity is subsidized as a result of a grant from Alberta Education to support implementation of mathematics.

Planning for the New Combined Mathematics 10 with Susan Ludwig January 27, March 11, April 26 and June 1, 2010 from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: Grade 10 Mathematics Teachers

ABOUT THIS LEARNING OPPORTUNITY:

Join this series of sessions to deepen your understanding of the new Combined Mathematics 10. In these sessions, participants will be provided with an overview of the changes to the program of studies and the big ideas in the Combined 10 course. Participants will work collaboratively to develop a unit plan and classroom ready materials that are linked to other available resources. The intended result is that teachers will have some resources that will support the implementation of the new Combined Mathematics 10 in September. The final day in June is intended to provide opportunities for sharing and/or further collaboration.

ABOUT THE FACILITATOR:

Susan Ludwig has been a secondary mathematics teacher and department head in Edmonton throughout her career. She is currently a mathematics consultant with Edmonton Catholic Schools, providing support to schools in grades 7–12 mathematics education. She has taken advantage of many opportunities to collaborate with classroom based researchers in mathematics education throughout her teaching career; this experience is embedded in her workshops.

Susan has been an author of several mathematics resources including recent resources developed for Alberta Education. She is actively involved in the Alberta Teachers' Association Mathematics Specialist Council, currently acting as the Vice President of Publications.
