SMART Boards 102 – Bringing It All Together! with Janet Bell

March 6, 2010 from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: K-12 Teachers & Administrators Who Have Been Using Notebook Software

ABOUT THIS LEARNING OPPORTUNITY:

Now that you have all the SMART Board tools at your fingertips, and have had some time to envision the world of new hands-on possibilities for student engagement that you and they can “tap” into, here’s your opportunity to learn how to make the most of this exciting new tool. In this session you will:

- Get connected to ongoing online support through SMART’s education solutions website and online professional learning communities (PLC’s)
- Explore advanced Notebook 10 features that help you structure and shape activities with style – page grouping, graphics, sound, animation, and more!
- Get to know the Gallery and Lesson Activity Toolkit!
- Make media – record pages, integrate video, use print capture features, integrate Flash objects – all with ease
- See how you can share interactive lesson activities

ABOUT THE FACILITATOR:

Janet Bell, a senior high English teacher with Edmonton Public Schools, is passionate about the potential of new technologies to awaken ideas and inspire the construction of knowledge in new ways. With a strong background in the humanities, many years engaging students in Edmonton Public Schools in innovative classroom interactions, and many more years working at a provincial level with ECS-12 teachers integrating educational technologies in all curricular areas, Janet provides a grounded vision of teaching and learning, a toolkit of tried-and-true strategies, and a deep respect for the value of collaboration.
