SMART Boards 101 - SMART Boards for Absolute Beginners with Janet Bell

August 16, 2010 from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: K-12 Teachers & Administrators Who Are Absolute SMART Board Beginners

ABOUT THIS LEARNING OPPORTUNITY:

Eager to put your new SMART Board to use engaging your students in new ways? In this practical session, suitable for those new to SMART Boards and needing extra time and support in using technology, you will explore the wide variety of ways you and your students can use this exciting tool to – literally – grasp learning in new ways!

You'll be introduced to:

- The SMART Board interface and Notebook 10 software
- How SMART Boards enhance your classroom use of interactive web resources - and vice versa
- Toolbars, tabs, working with objects
- Creating interactive lesson activities
- The Notebook Gallery
- How educators worldwide are using SMART Boards in creative ways, and how you can participate in a growing community of online support.

ABOUT THE FACILITATOR:

Janet Bell, a senior high English teacher with Edmonton Public Schools, is passionate about the potential of new technologies to awaken ideas and inspire the construction of knowledge in new ways. With a strong background in the humanities, many years engaging students in Edmonton Public Schools in innovative classroom interactions, and many more years working at a provincial level with ECS-12 teachers integrating educational technologies in all curricular areas, Janet provides a grounded vision of teaching and learning, a toolkit of tried-and-true strategies, and a deep respect for the value of collaboration.
