August 19, 2010 from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: Teachers of all subjects Div 3/4 but processes are applicable cross-grade

ABOUT THIS LEARNING OPPORTUNITY:

The "best" of SMART Boards 101/102 - Maximize your time creating Notebook activities. Begin with an overview of Notebook software basics. By the end of the day, you will be able to:

- create Notebook pages, from scratch and from templates, that integrate Flash video and custom-built interactivity
- present your activities with the "on-the-fly" tools within Notebook (such as the page recorder, dual-page display, etc.) and using SMART peripherals, such as the SMART Slate Airliner) and document camera
- customize your Gallery
- hear what worked best for your presenter team members, and strategize how you also can best shape lessons within the principles of pedagogically-sound instructional design

Prerequisite – Some experience with SMART Boards preferred but not essential; this will be quite a fast-paced session.
