The New Off-Campus Education Handbook with Mike Dumanski

October 7, 2010 from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: Administrators, Counselors and CTS Teachers

ABOUT THIS LEARNING OPPORTUNITY:

Proposed changes to the Off-Campus Education Guide for Administrators, Counselors and Teachers created some interesting conversations throughout the province. As a result, focus groups and provincial consultations were formed to review the proposed changes and the amendments to the proposed changes were the foundation for the new Off-Campus Education Handbook. This session will explore the history, changes and ramifications the changes have on future off-campus learning experiences.

ABOUT THE FACILITATOR:

Mike Dumanski is an educator, administrator, carpenter and a visionary. He is a 23 year educator, has been a classroom teacher, district administrator, and staff consultant with Edmonton Catholic Schools. For the past four years, Mr. Dumanski has worked for Alberta Education as a Program Manager, Curriculum Manager, Off-campus Education Manager, and duties as assigned. Mike was responsible for the latest revision and refocus of the new Off-campus Education Handbook.

This session will be repeated in the afternoon and will be available via videoconference.
